Operations and Administration Officer (Madagascar based)

Position Overview

We are excited to offer an excellent opportunity for a professional with 2-4 years experience in operations, administration or management to join our team.

SEED Madagascar is a UK charity dedicated to creating long-term, sustainable change in partnership with communities in the southeast of Madagascar. We integrate high-quality community health, WASH, education, rural livelihoods and conservation programmes, while contributing to international best practices through research and publications.

This office-based role is located in the small coastal town of Fort Dauphin, where you'll work alongside a diverse team of national and international staff. As Operations and Administration Officer, you'll oversee and support the Operations and Support Junior Officer, manage onboarding and training for international staff, improve systems and procedures, and support our short-term conservation programme volunteers.

This position is ideal for a candidate with a strong background in operations or administration who is ready to take on a management role. You'll provide high-quality administrative support while gaining hands-on experience in the development sector and learning how an international NGO operates. We're looking for a passionate and dedicated individual eager to contribute to SEED's mission and the growth of our programmes in Madagascar.

Location: Fort Dauphin, Anosy Region, Madagascar

Commitment: 2 years with potential to extend; Monday to Friday (40 hours a week)

Salary: a local stipend of 1,800,000 MGA per month, contribution of £650 towards insurance and £1,200 towards a return flight per year.

Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Line manage the Operations and Support Junior Officer, providing support and guidance and delegating tasks effectively to ensure alignment with departmental objectives, reporting deadlines and SEED's organisational values and strategy
2. Provide pre-departure logistical oversight, support and advice with visas, hotels, flights, accommodation, medication etc to new international staff
3. Support international staff during their initial time with SEED including arrival, social inclusion, cultural understanding, housing and integration into the SEED team
4. Offer pastoral care, guidance, and act as a role model for a team of early-career professionals living and working in-country, supporting both their professional growth and personal well-being
5. Lead on the recruitment of international staff, including the advertisement of vacancies

6. Lead on the on-boarding and logistical support for short-term conservation volunteers
7. Manage the training schedule across the staff team, working closely with the Senior HR Officer to ensure that all staff are trained and confident in the roles
8. Work with national staff to increase their skills and capacity, providing mentoring or training and encouraging skill sharing across the team
9. Assist in the preparation of reports for internal and external audiences including Annual Reports and Malagasy Ministry reports
10. Work with the Director of Operations and Programmes, and the International Operations Manager in developing, updating and implementing organisational databases, systems, policies and procedures and health and safety culture across the NGO
11. Project manage our Cyber Security implementation and development alongside the IT Officer
12. Provide core support to the Director of Programmes & Operations in management and ensuring the support and security of all international staff, including acting as an intermediary of organisational priorities to the wider team
13. Work flexibly, including changing work priorities at short notice to meet short deadlines
14. Ensure all of SEED's policies and procedures are evident throughout the work of the department, including those for safeguarding, whistleblowing and anti-corruption, and undertake continual training to ensure these are always promoted
15. Assist with administration tasks and any other tasks required by the International Operations Manager or Director of Programmes and Operations in line with the tasks of the post.
